Any Claims or Losses under all applicable sections of this policy, triggering more than one coverage section, will be deemed to be a single claim.

CLAIMS HANDLING AND NOTIFICATION

- 4.5 It is a condition precedent to the Insurer's liability that the Insured complies with each of the provisions of this clause 4.5. If the Insured fails to do so, the Insurer may (a) reject any claim for an indemnity under this policy; or, at its absolute discretion (b) elect to indemnify the Insured to the extent the Insurer would have been liable to pay in the absence of any prejudice in the handling or settlement of any Claim or notifiable circumstance under this policy which arises from the Insured's breach of condition precedent:

If such notice is given, any Claim subsequently made against the Insured alleging, arising out of or in any way connected with such circumstances shall be deemed to have been made at the time such notice of circumstances was given by the Insured to the Insurer. The Insured shall provide such information and documentation relating to the notification as the Insurer may require in its sole discretion.

CHANGE OF CONTROL

- 4.8 If during the Period of Insurance any person, group or entity acquires control of more than 50% of the issued share capital of the Policyholder or of the composition of the board of the Policyholder, the cover provided by this policy shall be restricted so as to apply only to Claims in respect of Business Interruption Events, Data Liability Events or Network Security Events occurring prior to the effective date of such sale, consolidation, merger or acquisition of control, unless the Insurer has agreed to extend coverage under the policy and the Policyholder has agreed to the terms of any such extension of coverage.

ASSIGNMENT

DUTY OF FAIR PRESENTATION

4.13 Before this insurance contract (or any variation thereto) is entered into, the Insured must make a fair presentation of the risk to the Insurer in any application, proposal form or other information submitted to the Insurer. This means the Insured must:

4.13.1 disclose to the Insurer (i) every material circumstance which the Insured knows or ought to know or (ii) sufficient information to put a prudent insurer on notice that it needs to make further enquiries in order to reveal material circumstances. A matter is material if it would influence the judgement of a prudent insurer as to whether to accept the risk, or the terms of the insurance (including premium); and

4.13.2 make the disclosure in clause 4.12.1 above in a reasonably clear and accessible way; and

4.13.3 ensure that every material representation of fact is substantially correct, and that every material representation of expectation or belief is made in good faith.

4.14 If the Insured fails to comply with clause 4.12, the Insurer has the following remedies:

4.14.1 If the Insured's breach of the duty of fair presentation is deliberate or reckless, then (i) the Insurer may avoid the policy, and refuse to pay all claims; and (ii) the Insurer need not return any of the premiums paid.

4.14.2 If the Insured's breach of the duty of fair presentation is not deliberate or reckless, then the Insurer's remedy will depend on what the Insurer would have done if the Insured had complied with the duty of fair presentation:

4.14.2.1 If the Insurer would not have entered into the contract at all, the Insurer may avoid the contract and refuse all claims, but must return the premiums paid.

4.14.2.2 If the Insurer would have entered into the contract, but on different terms (other than terms relating to the premium), the contract is to be treated as if it had been entered into on those different terms from the outset, if the Insurer so requires.

4.14.2.3 If the Insurer would have entered into the contract, but would have charged a higher premium, the Insurer may reduce proportionately the amount to be paid on a claim (and, if applicable, the amount already paid on prior claims).

INDEMNITY AND SETTLEMENT

4.15 The Insurer has the right but not the duty to assume control, defence and settlement of any Claim or investigation. At any stage of a Claim the Insurer may choose to pay the Limit of Liability or any amount that remains following any earlier payment(s).

4.16 The Insurer shall have the right to make an investigation it deems necessary including, without limitation, any investigation with respect to the Application and statements made in connection with the procurement of the policy and with respect to coverage.

- 4.17 With respect to any Claim, if the Insured refuses to consent to a settlement the Insurer recommends and the claimant will accept, the Insured may continue the defence and investigation of that Claim. However, the further costs and expenses incurred will be paid by the Insured and the Insurer on a proportional basis, with 25% payable by the Insurer and 75% payable by the Insured.

SUBROGATION

- 4.18 If the Insurer makes any payment under this Policy and there is available to the Insurer any of the Insured's rights of recovery against any third party, then the Insurer shall maintain all such rights of recovery. The Insured shall execute and deliver instruments and papers and do whatever else is necessary to secure such rights. This includes, but is not limited to, placing any third party on notice of any rights the Insured or the Insurer may have against it. The Insured shall do nothing to prejudice such rights. Any recoveries shall be first applied to subrogation expenses, second to any amounts paid or reimbursed by the Insurer under the Policy, and third to the Retention set out in Schedule.
